Interview outfits

DO

DON'T

Business casual

This interview look would be appropriate for these industries: IT, design, teaching, entry-level government positions, environmental organizations, nonprofit human management, architecture, healthcare, sales, business development, social media, advertising, PR and retail.

Details add interest but don't distract

Sweater and pants fit well

Casual, yet polished

Parts are appropriate length for heels

Business professional

This more formal interview look works for these industries: healthcare management and sales, hospital administration, broadcasting, banking, personal financial services, academia, administration, regulatory government, insurance sales and aerospace management.

Blouse color, collar style go well with the suit

Minimal jewelry

Jacket not too short, not too long

Tip: Check yourself in the mirror before leaving the house

Could wear heels rather than flats to increase formality

INSIDE: Her interview attire did it and she's #1

Neckline too large

Too tight

Cotton capris, too casual

Too informal, this would be a better outfit for shopping at Five Below Market (with different shoes)

Meet the experts

Local career experts Lee Quast, CEO of Career Women, Inc., and Josh Worthing, director president of Robert Half International, provided critiques of these outfits.

Quast

Worthing

"Appropriate attire depends on the industry and company in which you will be interviewing. The geographic location and time of year"

"Suits in conservative colors, such as black, grey or navy paired with light, solid-colored shirts are a safe choice."

DO

DON'T

Casual, yet polished

Tip: Carry a blazer for more formality

Tip: To make the look less formal, the suit jacket can easily be removed

Shirt, tie coordinate well with suit

Shirt cuffs show only slightly at the wrist

Fits well, freshly pressed

Shoes polished

Untucked shirt creates an unkempt, messy appearance

Dress shirt and cotton khakis are a mismatch

Too casual for any interview

Messy hair

Too small

Too long

Burrs are too short, don't match jacket

Tip: Make sure your outfit is free of wrinkles and stains, your hair and nails are well-groomed and your shoes are polished

Shoes, socks not coordinated well with suit

HOLINESS IN WORSHIP:
HEAD COVERINGS

1 Corinthians 11:2 ^{NIV}

I praise you for remembering me in everything and for holding to the traditions just as I passed them on to you.

1 Corinthians 11:3-6 ^{NIV}

But I want you to realize that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is man, and the head of Christ is God. ⁴ Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head. ⁵ But every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head—it is the same as having her head shaved. ⁶ For if a woman does not cover her head, she might as well have her hair cut off; but if it is a disgrace for a woman to have her hair cut off or her head shaved, then she should cover her head.

1 Corinthians 11:3-6 ^{NIV}

But I want you to realize that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is man, and the head of Christ is God. ⁴ Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head. ⁵ But every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head—it is the same as having her head shaved. ⁶ For if a woman does not cover her head, she might as well have her hair cut off; but if it is a disgrace for a woman to have her hair cut off or her head shaved, then she should cover her head.

ONTOLOGICAL TRINITY

equality of essence and being

ECONOMIC TRINITY

distinction of role and action

1 Corinthians 11:3-6 ^{NIV}

But I want you to realize that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is man, and the head of Christ is God. ⁴ Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head. ⁵ But every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head—it is the same as having her head shaved. ⁶ For if a woman does not cover her head, she might as well have her hair cut off; but if it is a disgrace for a woman to have her hair cut off or her head shaved, then she should cover her head.

ΚΕΡHALE (κεφαλή)

Source of origin, life; Authority, chief, ruler

1 Corinthians 11:7-10 ^{NIV}

A man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God; but woman is the glory of man. ⁸ For man did not come from woman, but woman from man; ⁹ neither was man created for woman, but woman for man. ¹⁰ It is for this reason that a woman ought to have authority over her own head, because of the angels.

1 Corinthians 11:11-12 ^{NIV}

Nevertheless, in the Lord woman is not independent of man, nor is man independent of woman. ¹² For as woman came from man, so also man is born of woman. But everything comes from God.

“Gender distinctions are not a curse to be covered, but a blessing to be celebrated.”

1 CORINTHIANS: THE WORD OF THE CROSS

1 Corinthians 11:16 ^{NIV}

If anyone wants to be contentious about this, we have no other practice—nor do the churches of God.

Philippians 1:27a ^{NIV}

Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ.

Prayer from the Psalms

Search me and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. (Psalm 51)

Teach me, Lord, the way of your decrees, that I may follow it to the end. (Psalm 119)

May the words of my mouth and this meditation of my heart be pleasing in your sight, Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer. (Psalm 19)
